WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

HOME ASSISTANCE EXPENDITURE.

£16,000 DEFICIT AT END OF YEAR.

OVERDRAFT TO BE SOUGHT.

Mr. M. Curran, Vice-Chairman, presided at the meeting of the above on Wednesday. Also present—Messrs. J. Butler, M. F. Walsh, T. Tracey, D. Coghlan, P. Caulfield, J. O'Donovan, D. Heskin, Wm. Stack, and T. Synott.

Home Help in Waterford.

A deputation from the Waterford Branch St. Vincent de Paul Society, appeared before the Board in connection with Home Assistance in the City. Mr. Kelly (for the deputation) said they wanted to regularise Home Assistance. He pointed out that in cases a man and wife and 5 children got 14/- a week in other the amount was 12/- and 7/- a week. They wanted every person to get a certain amount.

Mr. O'Donovan said that Mr. Kelly although he might not have the slightest intention of doing so, was reflecting on the Waterford Committee. It was a grave and unjust statement to make. The Waterford Committee, he said, went carefully into every case and dealt with it on its merits. He challenged anyone to say that they did not deal with cases on their merits. Referring to high rents, Mr. O'Donovan said tyrannical landlords were screwing unfortunate people with high rents, the committee were doing their work honestly and conscientiously. They had to take all things such as the rent, etc., into account.

Mr. Butler said that about 12 months ago the Board made an attempt to carry out a scheme like what Mr. Kelly had suggested, but it proved unworkable.

Secretary—This is really a matter for the Committee. Mr. Kelly replying to Mr. O'Donovan said they did not come to the meeting to be personal. They saw now that they should have gone to the Waterford Committee.

The deputation thanked the Board and withdrew.

Connection with Sewer.

Rev. Mr. Warren, Rector, Ardmore, appeared before the Board asking for permission to connect with the sewer pipe from the residence of the doctor.

Mr. Caulfield—This is a matter for the Engineer.

Secretary—Dr. Foley is objecting to the connection being made.

Mr. Caulfield—We would not be making any mistake in referring the matter to the Engineer.

Mr. Butler—If there is more than one connection it becomes a public sewer.

Secretary—The doctor holds that he has trouble with the pipe already and if a further connection is made there will be further trouble.

After some further discussion the matter was referred to the Engineer for a report.

Repairs Wanted.

The caretaker, Dungarvan Dispensary, wrote asking to have some repairs done. Some windows are broken and painting is required.

Mr. Caulfield—Is this the new caretaker, did he start already.

Mr. Walsh—The house is bad.

The Engineer was asked to report.

Financial Statement.

The monthly financial statement showed a balance to credit of £3,065.

Home Assistance.

Mr. Phelan, Superintendent Assistance Officer, reported the amount of Home Assistance paid out during the month was £3,564 19s. 10d., for the preceding month the amount was £3,565 5s. 9d. and for the corresponding period last year £2,900 16s. 9d.

Mr. Caulfield—A reduction of about £1 on last month.

Secretary—And about £700 over last year. Home Assistance this year will amount to about £43,000. When I estimated at £36,000, I thought I was over liberal, but the amount for the summer alone was over £20,000.

Secretary's Report.

The Secretary reported that owing to the reduction in the estimate submitted by him the Board would at the end of the year be faced with a deficit of £16,000. He suggested that they make application to the Co. Council and Waterford Corporation for their consent to an overdraft.

Replying to Mr. Caulfield, the Secretary said he brought this forward so that they would not find themselves in the same position as last year.

The report was approved.

Architects For Co. Hospital.

The Department wrote approving of the appointment of Messrs. McDonald, Dixon and Downes, as Architects under the Co. Hospital to be erected from the Sweepstakes Funds.

Secretary—I wrote to them and ask-

United Ireland Party

CONVENTION IN LISMORE.

A district Convention of the U.I.P. was held in the Courthouse, Lismore, on Sunday, Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, P.C., Ballyduff, presiding.

The following delegates were present—Lismore—Messrs. E. Murphy, T.C., P.C.; G. Hartly, David Barry, J. Fennessy, and M. McGrath.

Cappoquin—Messrs. James Fives, G. P. Hely, J. O'Connor, E. Casey, J. P. O'Donnell and James McGrath.

Tallow—Messrs. P. Dunlea, Wm. McDonnell, Wm. Herlihy and Ted Keniry.

Ballyduff—Messrs. P. J. O'Sullivan, P.C.; George Heskin, and P. Fahy.

Affane—Messrs. P. Morrissey, Hugh Walsh, and Wm. Baldwin.

Kilwatermoy—Mr. D. Cody.

Mr. F. C. Dennehy, Lismore, Organiser, explained that this Convention had been originally summoned for the purpose of selecting U.I.P. candidates for the Co. Council elections, these elections had since been postponed, there was no necessity for them to select candidates at present. However, as there were so many delegates present now perhaps it would be as well if they decided to form a District Executive of the U.I.P. Organisation so as to have West Waterford properly organised in the event of a General Election being sprung upon them, as he believed that such an event was more imminent than most of them realised. It was essential that every parish in the district should be fully organised. He then described the steps to be taken towards the work of organisation and read the rules governing such work, the affiliation fees to be paid and several other important details.

Mr. P. Fahy, supported the formation of a District Executive right away, as this would infuse more life into the individual branches and put them in full working order so as to be fully prepared for any emergency which may arise.

Mr. E. Murphy, thought it would be premature to form an Executive until they first had branches established in every parish in West Waterford, because if they did so now and appointed officers for some of the people of those parishes not yet organised would have a grievance.

A long practical discussion followed, in which Messrs. J. P. O'Donnell, G. Heskin, E. Casey, D. Cody, T. Keniry and others took part, and as it was the feeling of the majority to defer the formation of an Executive for the present, it was decided that the local men should get branches formed in every parish during the week, and that a further Convention be held in Lismore at 3.30 on next Sunday at which three delegates from each branch should attend when a District Executive will be formed and officers appointed until February, when the annual meetings of all Executives will be held.

Mr. P. Fahy and other delegates paid high tributes to the great work which Mr. F. C. Dennehy was doing in organising the various districts, and Mr. Dennehy said it would afford him great pleasure to visit any parish and assist the local men in the work of organisation, if the thought his services would be required.

Before the meeting concluded, the Chairman said he had just heard of the death of a great Nationalist in West Waterford, Mr. Michael J. Phelan, Campfire, who had been a life-long supporter of the National movement, and he thought they should pass a vote of sympathy with his relatives over the sad event.

Mr. J. P. O'Donnell proposed, and Mr. Fives, seconded, that a sincere vote of condolence be extended to the relatives of the deceased, and this was passed in silence.

RING PROFESSOR'S WORK.

Mr. Nicholas Tobin, the well-known Irish Scholar from Ring, has translated into Irish the story of Seamus MacManus, entitled—"A Lad of the O'Freil's." The Irish version is published by the Government Stationery Office, Dublin.

ed them to report as soon as possible and gave them an outline of what is required. You will probably have a reply from them in a few days.

Superannuation Refused.

The Minister wrote referring the Board to previous correspondence on the matter of the proposed superannuation of Mrs. O'Grady, Caretaker, Dungarvan Dispensary. The Minister had previously refused to sanction the payment of superannuation.

Appointment Approved.

A letter was read from the Appointments Commissioners approving of the Board's action in the appointment of Mrs. Margaret O'Connell, Moorehill, Tallow, as midwife of the Tallow Dispensary district.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. M. Clancy, T. McCarthy, Wm. O'Donnell, T. Power, J. F. Moloney, J. McEvoy.

PAYMENTS.

The following paysheets were passed—General A/c. £15 8s. 8d.; Footpaths £27 13s. 1d.; Co. Council £24 19s. 7d.

Chairman—How much money have you to do the footpaths?

The Clerk said he thought after payments made to-night, there would be a balance of about £15.

Mr. Power—You will be able to finish King's street at that rate.

B.S.—Unfortunately, when we got the machinery the weather broke, but for that much more work would have been done in Fair Lane this week.

Mr. Clancy—I passed there this evening, and I must say there is very little work done there. People are talking about it. We had plenty of money to do all the footpaths which we were to do, but I must say we are getting very bad return for the money. I don't know who is working on the job at all, but any man can't work on a wet day. I also heard there are too many men on the job.

Mr. McCarthy—Were you up there, Mr. Clancy—No, but I was informed.

Mr. McCarthy—You were informed wrongly. I was up there and I saw the men at work. I did not think there were enough men pulling the roller.

Chairman—You have roughly a balance of £15, but there is another account due on that.

B.S.—Yes. Hire of machinery.

Chairman—How much is that?

The B.S. produced the Co. Surveyor's letter stating that the Council should have the machine for a few days at 15/- a day or part of a day worked.

Chairman—That is a further £4.

Mr. O'Donnell said any Council would not ask another Council to pay for a full day when the machinery was only working part of a day.

Mr. Power—Will the balance finish Fair Lane?

B.S.—According to that it will not half finish it.

Mr. Power—When we decided to do these footpaths, we also decided to ask the B.S. to put in a liberal estimate that would finish the work. Now the money is expended and half the work is not done.

Chairman—What are we to do. We must either stop work when the money is expended, or try to raise more money.

Mr. Power—What amount would be required to finish the job?

B.S.—Half one side is done. There is enough tar and chips.

Mr. Clancy—I hold when the money is expended we should stop the work. Since the footpaths were started we got bad value for the money.

Mr. O'Donnell—There is about a quarter of the job done.

B.S.—Yes. If we had got fine weather we would have much more done.

Mr. Power—As the weather was not suitable for the work why were the men not knocked off. It is a queer way to be spending public money. If this money was coming out of our own pockets we would knock off the men until the weather was suitable.

After more discussion, the Chairman directed the Clerk and B.S. to have all the accounts with the balance available prepared by 12 o'clock on Saturday and any member who could do so could attend and discuss the matter.

CARTER'S WAGES.

Mr. McCarthy, moved the following notice of motion—"That the resolution on the books regarding Carter's wages of 7/- a day be rescinded and 10/- paid in future which is the lowest possible living wage and the rates paid by the County Council."

Mr. O'Donnell, seconded.

Mr. McCarthy—I brought this forward as I believe at the present time 7/- is a miserable wage for a man who has to feed a horse and keep a cart and tackling in order. The Co. Council are paying 10/- a day. Seven shillings is a miserable wage and a man without a horse would require that wage.

Mr. Foley—In the event of this going through, will every cart get a turn?

Mr. McCarthy—That order is already made.

Mr. Foley—It will be a life-time before some of them are taken on.

Mr. Power—I understood Cashman became entitled to the job on account of some letter he wrote to the Council. I don't know if that is so, but if it is the Council would be very unwise to change it.

Mr. Foley—I say there is no contract for the last year. I want to ask the Clerk will the Auditor have a say in this if it is not made subject to sanction of the Department.

Clerk—I could not say.

Mr. Foley—I for one don't want to pay out of my own pocket.

The Chairman, asked for his opinion said it was that this motion is long overdue and should have been brought on before the Council started to sign paysheets with this same figure or 10/- on them.

Mr. O'Donnell—Referring to the legality of the motion said I say without fear of contradiction, that there is nothing wrong with the payment of 10/- It was not the Council reduced the wage to 7/-.

Mr. Moloney—I think Mr. Foley has put the Clerk a right question.

Mr. McCarthy—I knew you would say that Mr. Moloney.

Mr. O'Donnell—Is there any possibility of a surcharge?

Clerk—I cannot say. You were paying a wage of 7/-, then you paid 10/- for some time, and again went back to 7/-.

Mr. McCarthy—I could prove that sanction is not required.

Mr. Foley—If Mr. McCarthy make his motion subject to sanction there will not be any vote, we will be unanimous.

Mr. McCarthy then agreed to make the motion subject to sanction to be made retrospective.

REPORT OF B.S.

The B.S. reported inspecting the houses of J. Whelan, Garvan's Terrace and Mrs. Croke's Mitchell street, accompanied by a deputation. They decided that a new floor was required in the kitchen of both houses.

Chairman—What will we do with this. Is there money in that account?

Clerk—No.

Mr. O'Donnell—What would the cost be?

B.S.—About £3 5s. per house.

Mr. O'Donnell—These floors are being asked for for 12 months and the people would not look for them only that they were badly needed.

The Council decided to look for tenders for labour and material to see what the floors would cost.

ELECTIONS POSTPONED.

A letter was received from the Minister giving directions for the issue of an order under the Local Education (postponements) Act, 1931, revoking his order of 30th August, and appointing the 15th, July, 1934 as the date for holding of elections of members of Local Authorities.

Mr. Clancy—Local Elections are long overdue.

Chairman—If it is fixed for July 15, we will have the elections on a Sunday and that is a very bad day.

Mr. Foley—The best of Clerk's make mistakes.

PAYMENT OF GRATUITY.

A letter was read from the Minister of Local Government and Public Health, advertising to the Council's letter of the 3rd inst., regarding payment of a gratuity to the representatives of the late Mr. Patk. Muleahy, and stating that the Minister is not aware of any statutory authority which would enable him to sanction a loan for this purpose.

Mr. Power—I thought we had sanctioned to raise a loan?

Mr. McEvoy—If they want leave us raise a loan, will they give a grant?

Mr. O'Donnell—This is the greatest foolaw yet.

The Clerk, at the request of a member read the correspondence dealing with the matter. The original resolution which was approved by the Department asked for sanction to the raising of a 10 years loan.

Chairman—The Council are after going to expense in connection with this matter. They had a mortgage prepared by the solicitor in connection with the loan from the Bank.

The Council decided after some further discussion to send a copy of the letter to the representatives.

WATER SHORTAGE.

Arising out of a complaint from the Matron re shortage of water at the Co. Home.

The B.S. said that owing to being engaged at Fair Lane during the week he was unable to inspect the Kiladangan supply.

On the suggestion of Mr. Power, the B.S. promised to visit Kiladangan on Saturday and have two men there to see if they could improve the supply.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Letters acknowledging the Council's resolution of sympathy on the death of Paddy Kenneally and Mrs. K. Duggan, Friary street.

SYMPATHY.

Mr. Clancy proposed, and Mr. O'Donnell seconded—"That the Council place on record an expression of regret on the death of Edward Foley, Mitchell street, and that deep sympathy be tendered to his bereaved widow, and the other members of his family."

PETROL FROM POTATOES.

A new industry is to be started in the Free State having for its object the extraction of Petrol from Potatoes. As there is a surplus crop this year this should be an excellent time for experimenting on such a matter.

FARM FIRES

ACCUSED RETURNED FOR TRIAL.

At the Kilmacthomas Court on Wednesday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J.

A young labourer, Thomas Connolly, Kilmacnavee, Kilmacthomas, was charged in custody with having at Kealfoun on 7th, October, maliciously set on fire and destroyed a hay shed and 30 tons of hay, value £550, the property of Richard Thompson, and also with having on 8th October, set fire to and destroyed a rick of straw and a cock of hay, value £220, the property of Mr. Roger Shanahan, Ashtown.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, S.S. prosecuted. Accused was not professionally represented.

Mr. Thompson stated he managed a farm at Kealfoun for his brother John. On the night of Oct. 7th, when returning home from P. Kirwan's, he found his hay barn and hay in flames. 30 tons of hay, value £100 and a shed which cost £200, were destroyed. The shed was insured but not the hay.

Denis Hassett, farmer Ashtown, said on Sunday 8th, Oct. he was in his own yard at 11.30 a.m., when he noticed smoke issuing from Mr. Shanahan's place Ashtown. He cycled there and found the straw rick on fire at the grove side of the yard about 4 or 5 feet from the ground. The fire appeared to be only a short time started. He called Mr. Shanahan's workmen, and they got buckets and water. When witness got back to the yard a cock of hay was also burning. They didn't succeed in putting out the fire, but they saved a shed and its contents nearby.

Miss Julia Hassett, Cumeen, said on Saturday night, 7th, October, she was coming from confession at Kilmacthomas about 7.30, in company with Wm. and Aiden Wall. She knew the accused. Thos. Connolly, whom she identified in Court. She met him on the Fews road.

Justice—Fews sounds a good name in this case. Spell it for me please, (laughter).

Continuing, witness said she met him about 200 yards from Fews, across the Kilnragree side. He was going towards the chapel of Fews. About half an hour later, witness was on the road speaking to Mr. Clary and his daughters at Kilnragree, when defendant came up the road from the Fews direction. "I then noticed a fire which was in the direction of Ash-town," said witness. We asked accused if he knew where the fire was and he said he didn't know. I said I thought it was Thompson's, but he made no reply. I went home subsequently.

Mr. Roger Shanahan, Ashtown, said on 8th Oct., at 12 o'clock noon, he was motoring from Waterford and when within a mile of Ashtown he noticed smoke rising from the place. On arrival at his yard he found a number of neighbours about and the rick of straw on fire. There is a grove of trees near where the straw was. The fire was on the grove side and both the rick of straw and cock of hay were in flames and were destroyed. The gable-end of a house within ten feet of the cock of hay took fire, but he and his helpers were able to quench that. He also noticed some larch trees were destroyed and a quantity of timber at the back of the straw rick. He valued the whole lot destroyed at about £220. The whole lot was insured. Witness didn't know the accused and had never seen him to his knowledge.

Mrs. Mary Kiersey, said she lived in a labourer's cottage at Ashtown. On Sunday morning, 8th October, she was standing at her own gate when she saw a man, whom she did not then identify, coming from the direction of the "knock" in Mr. Hassett's land and facing towards Mr. Shanahan's. The unknown person disappeared into Mr. Shanahan's grove. She saw him later coming back out of the grove and he crossed down the field at the back of her house. She then recognised him as being the accused. She shouted at Connolly he should have heard her, but although he should have heard her he made no reply. He disappeared behind some bushes in the direction of Mr. Shanahan's house. From the place where she saw accused on the second time, he was about a quarter of a mile from Shanahan's.

Guard Rice, said at 1.45 p.m., on the 8th, October, a report was received at the barrack, and in consequence of the report he went to Ashtown where he found a rick of straw and a cock of hay on fire. While at Ashtown he ascertained that a quantity of hay was also on fire at Thompson's farm at Kealfoun. Later on the same day, he went to Kilmacnavee where accused lived with his father. Witness was accompanied by Supt. Kelly and Sergt. Mangan. Accused made two statements after he had received the usual legal caution. Witness wrote both statements and accused refused to sign the first after it was written saying that what he had dictated was false. Defendant signed the second statement, which he said was true and in which he acknowledged himself as being

A New Monsignor.

DISTINCTION FOR VEN. ARCHDEACON BYRNE, P.P., D.D.

At the Parish Church, Ballybricken, on Sunday, Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, prior to administering the Sacrament of Confirmation, made the happy announcement that the Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, P.P., V.F., had been elevated to the dignity of Monsignor.

In conveying the news of this new honour for Ballybricken's zealous and beloved pastor, the Bishop paid a high tribute to the splendid condition of the parish, reflecting the success which attended the unceasing efforts of Archdeacon Byrne as its Spiritual guardian. He referred to the assistance given him by the Venerable Archdeacon and the heartening influence of his support in the duty which lay before him. No one was more worthy of the high honour bestowed on him. No one was more worthy of the high honour of Monsignor, an honour, which, as Domestic Prelate, conferred on him all the rights and privileges of a member of the Papal Household.

He again congratulated the Archdeacon on the state of the parish and on his elevation, and expressed the hope that he would be spared for many years to continue his excellent work.

Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, who was born in the Parish of Ardinnan and spent his early days at school there, afterwards went to Clonmel High School, and later entered St. John's College to begin his ecclesiastical studies there. He was early recognised at St. John's as a brilliant student, and he went on to Maynooth, where he read a distinguished course, was ordained, and sent for a further term to the Dunboyne establishment, where he had the degree of S.T.L. conferred on him. He was Professor at All Hallows College for about three years before he returned to St. John's College, and was identified with that institution for nearly twenty-eight years, becoming its President on the resignation of Dr. Whelan about thirteen years ago. He was shortly afterwards raised to the dignity of Canon, and about five years ago Rome conferred on him the special distinction of Doctor of Divinity. He had only occupied the pastorate of Ballybricken about a year when further elevation distinguished his Church work, being raised to the dignity of Venerable Archdeacon of the Cathedral Chapter on June 28th, 1931. A profound scholar and outstanding preacher, Rev. Monsignor Byrne has invariably been selected to preach at the cathedral in former years on almost every important occasion.

PRICE FOR FREE MILK IN CARRICK-ON-SUIR.

QUESTION OF LOWEST TENDER.

There has been an interesting development in connection with the free milk contract in Carrick-on-Suir.

At the last meeting of the Urban Council, the tender of Messrs. Ryan Bros., Carrick-on-Suir, was accepted for the entire milk supply about 20 gallons a day at 92d. per gallon. At that meeting there was a tender from Mr. Dwyer, Kilmory, for 15 gallons a day at 81d. per gallon. The Council decided that it would not be feasible to work the scheme with two suppliers and that all the milk should come from the same dairy.

Enthusiastic Welcome

FOR RELEASED FARMERS.

ADDRESSES BY GEN. MULCAHY, T.D., MR. DILLON, T.D., AND OTHERS.

On the home-coming of the nine young Waterford Farmers after their long period in Mountjoy jail, and their trial for conspiracy most enthusiastic scenes were witnessed. Farmers from every part of the Co. Waterford as well as from Kilkenny, Tipperary and Wexford, turned up at Waterford on the 12th, inst., to give them a real hearty reception. The men were accompanied from Dublin by Mrs. Redmond, T.D., Messrs. N. Wall, T.D., R. Houlihan, T.D., Gen. Mulcahy, T.D., James Dillon, T.D., M. F. Walsh, Co. Co., T. A. Morris, etc.

GEN. MULCAHY, T.D.

General Mulcahy, who was accorded a great ovation, said he was very proud to think he was the first speaker to associate himself with the welcome being accorded to the nine farmers. Whilst they were thankful to be able to welcome them home, there were unfortunately some things to which they were not able to welcome them. He would be glad to be able to welcome them back to homes without having the threat of the Sheriff outside them, and the threat of hunger inside, because that was what the farmers and workers of the country were being brought to day by day as the result of a policy at present being pursued. Let them not forget that any of the disturbances of daily lives during the coming winter months was the result of intimidation and inability on the part of the Government to govern. They should not forget either they had it in their own hands by their own votes to change the circumstances they found themselves in to-day. The men who brought the Waterford farmers on a false charge to Dublin, and kept them there for a month in jail without giving them an opportunity of showing their innocence were not so much anybody in Dublin as the Fianna Fail representatives in Waterford, Kilkenny and Tipperary. It was men like Mr. Paddy Little and Mr. Sean Goulding who put the present Government in power. Nothing could be said in favour of men who stood for a policy like that. Though they knew they were doing wrong they had not the moral courage to set up and tell those people they put into power they were pursuing a wrong and disastrous policy, and bringing poverty and want of hope to the country. But they would get that courage when they saw the people were not going to tolerate in Irish public life representatives of that kind. They would get that courage when they were prepared to stand up against intimidation, which was rising up around Irish public life, instead of being carried with it as with a stream.

The released farmers were Irishmen who had entered into liberty and freedom resulting from the struggles of their fathers and grandfathers. They were enjoying the liberty worked for by men like Parnell, Redmond, Griffith, Collins, and safeguarded by Cosgrave and the men who stood with him against the terrors and destruction of 1922, when they would have been prevented in death and destruction from taking up these precious gifts of liberty and freedom which the work of generations of these men brought them.

Having referred to the pleasure it gave him to stand on the same platform as the representative of the various interests who had come together on the principle of a great new United Ireland movement. General Mulcahy went on to say the people had difficulties to contend with, and were fighting under conditions in which a Government elected by the Irish people was destroying their agricultural markets and injuring their industrial future in spite of all their promises, although, he said, left sound, developing industries in the country when we went out in 1932.

In spite of all their work and their talk less Irish workers are employed to-day. They were struggling under difficulties created by the policy which sent nine innocent Waterford farmers before a military tribunal and took a dastard who fired a rifle from behind a hedge in Kerry at a man who had given service to Ireland for many years before an ordinary civilian court. They were a Christian, Catholic people, working out their existence through the sweat of their brows, mingling and co-operating with their neighbours in friendship, co-operation and kindness.

The terror and intimidation which were being dragged across the path of the daily lives of the people to-day were only a temporary and passing thing.

General Mulcahy concluded by promising that nothing which could be done to roll back the danger and the enemies that lay around County Waterford farmers would be left undone.

MR. DILLON, T.D.

Mr. James Dillon, T.D., who was enthusiastically received, declared that nine farmers were brought before the military tribunal charged with a crime of which they were not guilty, with trial prepared for them by a speech made by the President of the Executive Council at Dundalk, in which he prejudiced the issue, and said as much as he dared say in order to secure these farmers would not come back to Waterford until they were jailed in Dublin. Notwithstanding Mr. de Valera they had got the nine men back, and would keep them at home. Courts considered adequate to try men on charges of brutal assault and attempted murder were not sufficiently strong or resolute to try nine respectable men who had never broken the law of the land. If that was the kind of justice the people of Waterford wanted they would get it by supporting Messrs. Little and Goulding at the next General Election.

There had never been conspiracy amongst their people to defy law, and never would be. Our people know, he said, the day is not far distant when we will be called upon to govern this country, and we intend to undertake that task with the strong moral position as men who have obeyed the law, even when we thought it was oppressive.

He wanted to sound a note of warning. The plot laid by Fianna Fail to blacken the character of these nine men had failed, but they should remember the men who laid that plot might lay another and they might have people sent down by the Fianna Fail Party with the deliberate "intention" of trapping some men in this county into some kind of illegal activity simply to give Fianna Fail the opportunity of jailing nine other men when they could not jail these. They realised the Irish Nation was greater than any Party or individual, and that when ever law was made by the Irish Parliament they would obey it as long as it remained the law.

Nine months ago he told President de Valera, in his own room, that if he persisted in pursuing the present policy, the time would come when the farmers would be unable to pay either rates or land annuities. He told him now that the sons of the men who fought the land war never went back on their fathers' bargain yet and they would pay what they owed so long as they were able to pay it.

"I" said Mr. Dillon, "will pay my annuities and rates although I think it is unjust to ask them, so long as I am able to pay, but if the economic war continues much longer, I will not be able to pay, and he can send down his sheriff, his OGPU or anybody else. If they can get means to pay on my land or in my house they are welcome to take it."

The people of Waterford, he continued, should insist that compensation was forthcoming from the Government to pay these nine farmers for what they had suffered, and the injustice done them. So far as they were concerned they would demand it and they looked to the farmers, not only of Waterford, but every county in Ireland, to support them in insisting that these men got no more than what was their due.

Referring to the charges made by the President in Dublin against Gen. Mulcahy, Mr. Dillon commented on Mr. de Valera's failure to produce proof after the President had subsequently discovered that the man who blackened Mulcahy's character was a self-confessed liar, and when asked to produce that man before the Tribunal, de Valera ran away (voice "Not for the first time"). "He may run," he went on, "but there are people in this country who will run after him."

He reminded the meeting of Piggott, the celebrated figure in the Parnell Commission trial, and how the written confession that he was a liar had been forced from him. That was in '87. Before they were finished they would also get the written confession from the Piggott of 1933. He wanted to tell the men of County Waterford there was nothing illegal in wearing a Blue Shirt. Blue shirt men did not carry arms or try to murder their political opponents. They were always ready to obey whatever directions the Civic Guards gave them. They were proud of the Civic Guards and looked upon them as friends. No member of the Garda Siochana could ever say he got a blow or insult from any members of the Young Ireland movement, and he never would.

They recognised the country was in imminent peril and believed the time was coming to put it up to the people to choose leaders with names like O'Duffy, Mulcahy, Redmond, McDermott, Cosgrave and Dillon, not leaders like de Valera, Flinn, Briscoe and the rest of them.

Quoting a line from "Dark Rosaleen," Mr. Dillon said Mr. de Valera who was thinking of Spanish ale, was going to rob them of their markets and livelihood, and of their land in his new Land Bill, and when he had got them out on the road, out of their homesteads he would give them Spanish ale to keep their hearts up. It was up to the people to make up their minds whether they were going to live on Spanish ale or whether they were going to be allowed into peace, prosperity, unity, absolute independence and liberty that Ireland had always wanted and would always have by having Irishmen on Irish platforms or whether they were to have disunion, perpetuating hatred, fomenting murder, promoted and tolerated by a Government, at the head of which stands a man of alien parentage, born in a foreign land.

While he did not desire to be unduly bitter he would say that there was neither luck nor blessing in this country since President de Valera appeared on the political horizon, and he said a good many thought there would be neither luck nor blessing while he was in it.

"COWARD IN BACKGROUND."

Sir Robert Paul, chairman, Gaultier branch of Farmers' Defence League, said neither Geoghegan nor Gavan Duffy, with all their cleverness, had been able to brow-beat the nine farmers. They had the cheek to ask them what they had in bank. "I," said Sir Robert, "would like to ask Geoghegan what he has in bank? What right had Geoghegan to make them out as millionaires because one of them had £80 in the bank." How would Geoghegan like to face a year "with only £80 in the bank. I bet he got more than £80 out of trying to put these farmers into jail."

He went on to say as chairman of the branch he should have been taken with these men. He did not know why they had not taken him or what excuse they had in leaving him behind. "Possibly," he said, "Geoghegan referred to me when he talked of the coward in the background. It is no fault of mine I was in the background. I wrote to Mr. Halley to tell him if Mr. Geoghegan would only name the man he referred to as the coward in the background and that, if I were that man, I would give him every satisfaction he demanded, and said he desired to have."

This, concluded Sir Robert, amid tumultuous cheering, "is only our first victory, and I hope it will not be our last."

Mr. William Hearne, Glen, Chairman Co. Waterford Farmers' and Ratepayers League and Mrs. Redmond, T.D., Messrs. Nicholas Wall, T.D., R. Houlihan, T.D., T. A. Morris, Clonmel, and the Mayor of Waterford (Councillor M. Casin) also spoke.

Rate Collection.

The Secretary L.G.O.B. has addressed the following letter to County Councils on the question of the payment of rates:

"I am directed by the Minister for Local Government and Public Health to express his grave concern at the lamentable state of the rate collection apparent from returns showing the position at the close of the half-year ended 30th, ultimo. At this period, granted efficient collection, the proportion of the entire year's collection lodged should have amounted to one-half, but in no county has one-third been reached and the general position is that less than one-eighth of the rates have been collected. This position is discreditable alike to County Councils, their collectors, and the ratepayers themselves. Economic conditions were difficult last year when the proportion collected at this stage amounted to one-fifth. In the preceding year the proportion was one-fourth, while the year before showed a collection of over one-third. The retrogression disclosed cannot but reflect on all parties concerned.

County Councils are not merely spending bodies, the main source of their income is from rates and their most important duty is to see that the rates necessarily levied are promptly collected. The published reports of the proceedings at meetings of many County Councils show that many Councillors appear from their public utterances more disposed to excuse ratepayers in default than to stress their obligations to meet their civic debts. Utterances of this character are quite inconsistent with the functions for which Councillors are elected, they discourage ratepayers and rate collectors. The Minister wishes to emphasise that it is the duty of each and every County Councillor both by personal example in prompt payment and by direct encouragement to ratepayers to assist in the early collection of rates.

The position of County Secretaries in this matter is that they are the responsible executive officers of the various Councils and as such are responsible to see that the rates are properly collected and that the Rate Collectors properly perform their duties. In this portion of their duties neither County Secretaries nor Rate Collectors can be lawfully interfered with by Councils. Should Councils or Councillors purport to instruct their officers to refrain from taking all due steps to secure prompt payment of rates County Secretaries are obliged under Section 61 of the Local Government Act, 1925, to warn the meeting that the Councillors in question may be held responsible at audit for any subsequent loss.

Each County Council should thoroughly examine the rating position and take all steps necessary to bring about an improvement. On the one hand they should issue public notices to ratepayers calling for the immediate payment of rates and pointing out the serious consequences that would be entailed by curtailment of civic services should this become necessary by lack of financial accommodation. On the other hand they should examine scrupulously the manner in which their officers are attending to the collection. The Collectors should be required to show when all demand notes were issued, how long after they received their warrants and what subsequent steps they have taken to collect the rates. Delay in the issue of demand notes is dealt with by disciplinary action. The Rate Inspectors should be called upon to exercise the utmost energy in their supervision and to bring to light forthwith any cases of slackness on the part of the Collectors. The Inspectors should report at frequent intervals as to the manner in which the Collectors are proceeding and showing what supervision they themselves are exercising. Particulars of the number of inquiries made by the Rate Inspectors from ratepayers appearing in arrears should be given and whether as a result of such inquiries the Inspectors are satisfied or not with the work of the Collectors.

Cappoquin Assault Case.

A MIDNIGHT CHARGE.

DEFENDANTS RETURNED FOR TRIAL.

At the Lismore District Court, before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L., two Cappoquin brothers, Gerald and Michael Kenny, were charged with maliciously wounding Mr. George P. Hely, M.P.S.I. Cappoquin, on the night of 14th, Aug., or morning of Aug., 15th.

Mr. E. A. Ryan State Solicitor, prosecuted and Mr. J. G. Skinner, solr., Clonmel, for both accused.

Mr. Skinner applied at the outset to have the charge of wounding reduced to one of common assault, but the Justice said he would prefer to have the depositions first taken before he would consider that point.

MEDICAL EVIDENCE.

Dr. T. K. White, Cappoquin, stated that on the morning of August 15th he was called to attend George Hely and found him suffering from a wound on the right side of the head. The wound was a jagged one, and was two or three inches long. There was also a small punctured wound a few inches away on the same side of the head.

Witness was here handed the hard felt hat worn by the injured man on the night of August 14th, which showed a rent on the right hand side, and also a small clear-cut hole a few inches away, and was asked by Mr. Ryan if these marks corresponded with the wounds on Mr. Hely's head. He said they did, more especially the small punctured mark.

Continuing, Dr. White said that he also found bruises on the left side of the chest and throat. The injured man was a fortnight continuously under his care, as his life was in danger. When he first saw Mr. Hely he was suffering from concussion, and later the wound became septic, and it was then that he definitely thought his life was in danger. Under treatment, however, his general condition improved, and the concussion cleared up, but he then developed left-sided paralysis from which he is still suffering, due to the injuries to his head. There was also a fracture of the vault of the skull, and witness thought it advisable to have an X-ray examination, which was carried out by Dr. Moloney, Dungarvan.

Mr. Ryan—What is the condition of the injured man now, or are you in a position to say that he is completely cured?

Dr. White—No, and in my opinion it will be a long time before he is completely cured if he ever will be.

Cross-examined—Mr. Hely was a heavy man and witness knew the flagged pathway in front of Kenny's house. A fall against the kerb might account for the larger wound, but not for the small punctured wound. He did not think that the latter could have been caused by a sharp stone.

The deposition made by the injured man on the night of August 21st was now handed in by Mr. Ryan.

Mr. Skinner asked if Mr. Hely was to be examined now, as he wished to have the opportunity of cross-examining him.

The Justice—There is no necessity for examining him now, as I was up until midnight taking his deposition, which we have here, and he was fully cross-examined by your clients on the occasion, all of which is included in the deposition.

John O'Shea, Cappoquin, stated that at about 12.40 on the night of August 14th he was speaking to Michael Kenny at the latter's hall-door when he was invited into the house. Both of them went into the parlour, Gerald Kenny was there when they went in, but after some time Gerald went to bed.

Between 1 o'clock and 1.15 witness heard two knocks at the hall-door, and Michael Kenny went out and opened the door. Witness then heard a voice which he recognised as George Hely's, saying to Michael Kenny, "Where are the I.R.A. now?" Witness then left by the back door and went out to the yard, but when he heard Mrs. Kenny screaming, some time later he came back to the house. Mrs. Kenny asked him did he see Gerald, and when he replied that he did not she said he must have gone to the barracks. Witness then went to the barracks with Mrs. Kenny and Michael Kenny.

Replying to Mr. Skinner, witness said that before the knocks at the door he saw no weapon with Michael Kenny. He did not see Mr. Hely enter the place at all. Before he left the house he saw Gerald Kenny coming down the stairs, and he had no boots on then, but went back upstairs and put on his boots before he went to the barracks.

James Conway, who resides a short distance from Kenny's house, said that he went to bed about 11 o'clock on the night of August 14. Between one o'clock and twenty past one he was awakened by the sound of a woman screaming and he heard several persons shouting, "Will somebody go for the guards?" He jumped out of bed and dressed himself quickly and on going down towards Kenny's house he saw Mrs. Kenny standing at the hall-door and Michael Kenny was holding George Hely down on the ground. The latter was lying partly in the channel and partly on the footpath, face upwards. As witness was approaching he heard quarrelling going on, but there was silence when he arrived on the scene. He then went for the Guards, and on returning to Kenny's house he saw Michael Kenny and John O'Shea standing at the hall-door, but Gerald was not there. Witness then went home.

Cross-examined—When he saw Hely and Michael Kenny on the ground, he said to Kenny, "I am going for the Guards," and the latter said, "Do do, for the love of God!" The condition of the flags in front of Kenny's house was uneven, as the outer flag was lower than the inner one.

Mr. Skinner was proceeding to further cross-examine the witness on this point when—

The Justice said that this was a matter for an engineer to give evidence about and not for a witness like this.

GUARD'S EVIDENCE. Guard J. O'Mahony, Cappoquin, in reply to Mr. Ryan, stated that he was stationed orderly in the barrack on the night of Aug. 14 and morning of the 15th. About 1.35 a.m. Mr. James Conway knocked at the door and in consequence of what he said, witness went upstairs and called Sergeant Rochford, who was in bed. A few minutes later Gerald Kenny arrived at the barrack and complained that he had been assaulted by George Hely, and said that he wanted to make a statement. He showed witness a small cut or bruise on the side of his head from which a small trickle of blood was running down the side of his hair.

George Hely arrived a few minutes later and said, "They tore down my flag last night and now they thought to murder me." Hely had no hat on and was bleeding from a wound on the right side of the head. Sergeant Rochford then arrived in the day-dormitory, but left soon afterwards with Gerald Kenny, and Hely left about 2.40 a.m.

Cross-examined—He did not hear Gerald Kenny make any statement to the sergeant. Hely appeared to be dazed at the time, but was sober. He made no allegation that any weapon had been used against him. At no stage did he hear Gerald Kenny say that George Hely had hit him with a blackthorn stick. Witness heard Mrs. Kenny speaking to the sergeant in the barrack hall, but he did not see her. George Hely had no stick with him when he came to the barrack.

Sergeant Rochford, Cappoquin, stated that on the morning of August 15 he was called out of bed about 1.40 by Guard O'Mahony, and on coming downstairs he saw Gerald Kenny and George Hely both in the day-room. Kenny was sitting on the edge of the table and Hely was pacing up and down the floor. There was a trickle of blood running down the left side of Kenny's head and there was blood flowing from a wound over Hely's right ear. Witness asked what was the matter, and Hely said that Gerald Kenny had assaulted him, and Gerald Kenny said, "He came up to our door kicking up a row." Witness asked Hely if he required a doctor and he said he did, and as witness was about to go for the doctor a knock came to the door and Mrs. Kenny, Michael Kenny and John O'Shea, arrived, and Mrs. Kenny asked if Gerald was in the barrack and was told that he was. Mrs. Kenny was in night attire at the time. Michael Kenny then said that he wanted to make a statement. Witness said, "I'll see you in the morning as I must now get a doctor for George Hely, who appears to be dangerously wounded." Witness then left the barrack with the Kennys, and on the way up the street Michael asked him, "Had Hely the stick with him in the barrack?" and witness said that he saw no stick with him. On searching outside Kenny's house he found the stick—a light black thorn (produced)—in the channel and Hely's hat in the middle of the road opposite. He then went for Dr. White, and brought the hat and stick with him, and on returning to the barrack later he examined the hat, when he found the marks on it which had already been shown to the court. About 4.30 a.m., he went up to Kenny's house and saw both Michael and Gerald there. He examined Gerald's head and found a small cut at the back of the left ear.

Cross-examined—The distance between Hely's house and Kenny's was over one hundred yards. During the whole of the morning of August 15, Hely never said to him that he had been assaulted with any weapon.

Replying to further questions, he said he knew that the flagging outside Kenny's house was uneven, but he had no knowledge of a sharp edge being on the kerb there.

Mrs. Annie Kenny, mother of defendants, said she was in bed about one o'clock on the morning in question, and heard shouting on the street outside and a knock at the door. She heard the door being opened and recognised George Hely's voice shouting but she could not remember what he said. Gerald was in bed at the time, but she heard him getting up and going downstairs. Witness went down soon afterwards and by the light of the lamp in the hall she saw Gerald lying on the floor and George Hely standing over him. Michael was then holding back Hely, and she said, "George Hely, you've killed my son." After some time Gerald got up, and gave a little stagger and said he would go to the barrack. She saw Michael endeavouring to put Hely out, and the next she saw the two of them lying "topsy-turvy" in the channel. Hely was underneath and Michael was lying flat over him trying to hold him down. Gerald then put on his shoes and said he was going to the barrack, and she then went upstairs and put on her coat and slippers. When she came down, Michael and John O'Shea were in the hall, but Hely was gone. She then went to the barrack with Michael and John O'Shea and found Gerald and Guard O'Mahony there.

Replying to Mr. Skinner, witness said she saw no weapon with either of her sons that morning.

Detective-officer J. McCabe, Cappoquin, stated that he interviewed both accused in connection with the matter, on August 19 and they both volunteered to make statements, which he took down in writing and got them to sign.

Both statements, which ran into several pages of foolscap, were now read by witness and were ordered to be attached to the depositions.

Witness was cross-examined by Mr. Skinner as regards the uneven state of the flags outside Kenny's house, but was unable to throw much light on this point, and Mr. Skinner said he hoped he would examine them more closely before the Circuit Court was held.

Mr. Skinner renewed his application to have the charge reduced to one of common assault.

PRETTY CORK-YOUGHAL WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place at Cork on Wednesday, when Mr. Gerald O'Flynn, solr., 41 South Mall, Cork, second son of Mr. B. O'Flynn, B.E., and the late Mrs. O'Flynn, Lee Villa, Sunday's Well, was married to Miss Maureen Murray, eldest daughter of Mr. John and Mrs. Murray, Marymount, Youghal. The ceremony was performed in the University Church, Cork, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, by the Rev. E. O'Flynn, C.C., Drimoleague (uncle to the bridegroom) assisted by the Very Rev. D. Canon Dinneen, D.D., P.P., Youghal, Rev. Wm. Egan, C.C., Crosshaven and Rev. J. O'Brien, C.C., Dean of Residence. A dejeuner was given by the bride's parents at the Imperial Hotel, at which the relatives and the clergy were present. A large number of valuable and useful presents were received by the bride and bridegroom and were on view at her parents' residence, where many friends were entertained prior to the wedding. After the dejeuner the happy pair left for the South of England on their honeymoon.

HE MUST BE THIN. Two Irishmen met once, and referred to the illness of a third.

"Poor Michael! I'm afraid he's going to die," said one.

"And why would he die?" asked the other.

"Oh, he's so thin! You're thin enough, and I'm thin—but Michael is thinner than both of us put together."

DREADFUL. Mrs. Suburb: "Bridget, where did you get that dreadful black eye?"

Bridget: "Me brother gave it to me, mum. And what will the neighbours say? Me with an eye like that, and no husband!"

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

TENDERS FOR COTTAGES.
WATER SUPPLIES.

Mr. Patk. O'Gorman, Chairman,
presided at the meeting of the above
on Saturday. The other members present were—Messrs. J. O'Donnell D.
Heskin, G. J. Greene, Mce. Keane, W.
Stack, J. Kiersey, M. F. Walsh, M.
Curran and J. Butler.
Mr. O'Gorman, sovr., and Messrs.
Spreadborough and Jephson, Engineers, were also in attendance.

Cottage Arrears.
The Secretary reported that the amount of cottage rents outstanding at the beginning of last month was £1,123
0s. 7d., and at the end £707 8s. 8d.
Chairman—The arrears are reduced by about £400.
Secretary—Yes; but they are still much higher than last year.

Solicitors Fee For Transfers, Etc., Of Plots.
The Board decided subject to sanction to allow the solicitor £4 per plot in connection with the transfer to the Board of plots under the Cottage Scheme.

Application To Connect With Drain
Rev. Mr. Warren, Ardmore, appeared before the Board and requested that he be allowed to get the Rectory connected to the drain pipe from the doctor's residence.

As the matter was one for the Board of Public Assistance, the applicant was asked to make an application to that body for next meeting.

Change Of Situation Of Plots.
Mr. M. Ronayne, Coolcormack, appeared before the Board regarding the position of two cottages on his land at Ardoo, Ardmore. He pointed out that there was already a cottage on his land there, the acre of which went along by the public road. The tenant of this cottage was agreeable to change the position of his acre, so that the three cottages can be put in the same field.

Secretary—I was in Ardmore yesterday and saw the place. Then tenant of the original cottage is agreeable to change the position of the plot which is at present along by the road. The three plots can then be put in the same field.
On the proposition of Mr. Greene, seconded by Mr. Curran, the application was approved subject to sanction.

Alternative Plot.
Jas. Connolly, Graignagower, Ballymacarby, appeared before the meeting protesting against the erection of a cottage on his land. His objection was previously disallowed. The application for the cottage has since gone to America with his wife and family.

In the event of the application being refused, he asked that the cottage be put in an alternative plot in his land.
Mr. Greene—It is very hard to be putting a cottage on this man, especially as the applicant is now gone.
The Board decided to approve of the change of site if the alternative one is approved by the Engineer.

Piltown Well.
The M.O.H., reported that the well at Piltown required to be cleaned and deepened.
Referred to Engineer for report.

Lismore Water.
Arising out of a report of the shortage of water on the high levels at Lismore.

The Secretary stated that the Board had no control over the supply.
Mr. Heskin asked about the possibility of getting an independent supply
through a Government relief scheme grant.

Replying to Mr. Heskin, the Secretary stated that it was only the surplus water from the Castle supply that the town gets.
The Chairman said the pressure at the low levels was good and a lot of water is wasted by the automatic flushing tanks there. In the higher levels
they have no water at all.

The Board made an order stating that they had no control over the supply.
They asked the chairman and Mr.
Heskin to attend the next meeting of the Town Commissioners to discuss the matter with them.

No Water.
Arising out of a report from Mr.
Dee, Water Rent Collector, that M.
Tobin, Ballinamintara, had no water supply for a period of between two and three months. The Board remitted two months rent to Mr. Power.

Tramore Scavenger.
The Tramore Public Health committee wrote recommending that the Scavenger get an increase of 7/- a week owing to increased duties.
Secretary—He is now doing some extra work which was previously done by the Co. Council.

Replying to Mr. Butler, Mr. Jephson, Engineer, said that the sweeping of the streets was done by the Co. Council men and they were not supposed to do this and discontinued it. This order was made by the Co. Surveyor.

Mr. Butler—I do not for a moment accept the ruling of the Co. Surveyor.
The Co. Council are bound to maintain the main roads. I have no objection to the man being paid more money
I would be delighted to pay him more,
but I don't accept that ruling.

Mr. Kiersey—Not so very long ago the Tramore committee sent a letter to the Board complaining of the rates
being high.
Chairman—Yes, but it is themselves are raising the rates. That committee

take up a lot of the time of this Board and we should ask them to constitute themselves an Urban Authority and then they will have control of all these things themselves.

Water Rates.
Mr. Dee, reported that three residents of the Ballinacourty, Dungarvan area, owed two half-year's water rates and refused to pay.

The Secretary stated that the matter was referred to Mr. O'Gorman, sovr.,
and he had received one half-year's rate in each case.

Objection To Sites.
Mr. Ed. Morrissey, Burgery, Dungarvan, appeared before the meeting and protested against the situation of the cottage site on his land.

Mr. Spreadborough said the present site was chosen by the Inspector, as the site offered by Mr. Morrissey had a road depot opposite where the cottage should be erected.

Mr. Butler said that the site offered by Mr. Morrissey was approved by the sites' committee and marked on the map.

A resolution was passed asking that Mr. Morrissey be accommodated as far as possible.
A number of prospective tenants of cottages also appeared before the Board protesting against proposed plots.

Appointment Of Rent Collector.
Two applications were received for the position of Cottage Rent Collector for portion of the Youghal No. 2 area, viz.,—Mr. John Broderick, Home Assistance Officer, Clashmore, and Mr.
M. O'Shea, D'Loughane.

Mr. Stack proposed the appointment of Mr. Broderick.
Mr. Green, seconding, said the two positions are invariably amalgamated in other districts.

Secretary—Yes.
Mr. Broderick was unanimously appointed.

Compensation Sought.
Mr. Power, Lower Curragh, Ardmore, appeared before the Board asking for £15 compensation as well as a free water supply owing to the breaking by the Board of an agreement with him.

Mr. Power stated that the agreement was for a 2 inch pipe to be run through 60 yards of his land, he to open and close the trench and give the land free in return for a free supply.
That agreement was broken on two points as the contractor put a scour pipe on his land and a second tap outside the fence where he was to make a gateway. After being questioned by Mr. O'Gorman, sovr., as to the agreement he signed.

The Board adjourned the matter to next meeting. Mr. O'Gorman to produce the agreement.

Sympathy.
Mr. Kiersey, proposed, that the Board place on record an expression of sincere sympathy to Mr. Patk. Morrissey, Rent Inspector, on the death of his wife. We all know Mr. Morrissey as one of the ablest officials of this Board for a number of years.
Mr. J. O'Donnell, seconded.
Secretary—On behalf of the officials
I wish to be associated with the resolution.

Mr. O'Gorman, sovr., also joined in the expression of sympathy, which was then put and passed in silence.

ESTEEMED CARRICK-ONSUIR LADY'S DEATH.

The death has occurred at Brockley, London, of Mrs. A. Shipside, wife of Capt. R. Shipside, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Riordan, Bess-boro Arms Hotel, Carrick-on-Suir.
The deceased lady was greatly esteemed and respected by all who knew her,
and her death in early years has caused much regret among her friends.
She married Capt. Shipside, about 10 years ago.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

LOITERING AND ASSAULT.

JUVENILE CRIME.
(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

Begging.
Guard Kelly, charged Patk. Leahy,
21, of no fixed abode, with begging.
Complainant said defendant went from house to house begging—he even came to witness (laughter).
Defendant admitted the offence. He said he had come from Macroom.
Complainant said defendant was at the pictures the same night.
Replying to the Court, defendant said he was a shoemaker, but could get no work. That was his first time in Court.
He was let off with a caution.

Loitering And Assault.
Charles Dudley, Hurley's Lane, was charged on remand with breaking and entering, being found loitering and also with assault.
Supt. Dennehy, prosecuting, said that the defendant was charged with breaking into the Cottage Hospital at 8.15 p.m. on the 6th, inst., intending to commit a felony and with assaulting one Patk. Fitzgerald, who declined to prosecute. He (the Supt.) didn't think the charge of housebreaking would hold and with the Court's permission
he intended to withdraw it.

Patk. Fitzgerald, stated he was a ward attendant in the Cottage Hospital. Finishing work at about 8.30. On October 6th, he went to his own room in the upper storey, an adjoining old building. It was dark at the time. He lit a match and was just going to put the key in the door when Dudley, who was hid behind a wardrobe outside the door jumped on him and hit him in the right eye with his clenched fist.
After a bit of a struggle he brought Dudley into the room, lit the gas and asked for an explanation of his attack.
Dudley said he wanted to have his own off him (Fitzgerald) because he had said that he (Dudley) had stolen malt out of the Hospital. There had been malt stolen out of the Hospital sometime previously. He said he couldn't walk the streets—that the police were after him. Witness ordered him to go down the stairs, but he said he would go out the way he came in—by the back way, through the garden and over the wall—and he went. "What I want to make clear is that he has me down for reporting him to the police about this malt."

Defendant—It's all lies he's telling.
The Supt.—You weren't there at all,
I suppose (laughter).
Sergt. Lupton, who said the Hospital Matron rung him up, handed in a statement made by defendant to the effect that he was aged 21, a labourer, and living with his mother. He entered the Hospital by the back garden,
went upstairs and concealed himself, waiting for Fitzgerald, whom he struck when he came along. He had heard that Fitzgerald's mother had said that he was going to break into the Hospital. He knew that the Matron kept money in the office.

Guard Downes gave evidence of arrest. He said he would make no statement, but the one he had already made.
Defendant, sworn, stated that some months ago, Fitzgerald asked him to break into the Hospital, but he refused.
That night Fitzgerald told his mother that he (the accused) was going to break in there.

To the Court, the accused said he challenged Fitzgerald a month ago about the story his mother spread. He admitted striking Fitzgerald 5 or 6 times against the wall. Fitzgerald said he wasn't an informer, but witness said it wasn't for that, but for the lies
he had told his mother that he wanted
him.

To the Supt.—How do you know he told his mother that story? She told it in several houses, but I am not going to give the names.
He wasn't an associate of the men
recently sent to prison. The hospital was the quieter place to meet him than the street. He went there to meet Fitzgerald.

Replying to the Court, accused said
he did an odd week's work for farmers during the past 12 months. He was doing nothing for the rest of the time.
He was living with his mother. His step-father was a sailor.

After a lengthened hearing,
The Justice said he would convict in those cases. What had the Guards to say about the man?
Sergt. O'Beirne said he had the man under supervision for the past 12 or 18 months as a suspect, loitering around and frequently associating with the men who got imprisonment recently.

The Supt. said there had been five cases of housebreaking in Youghal that year, together with others that had been detected. Since last Court day, a house had been broken into on the Strand, and attempts made at others. He believed that man was one of the gang operating that business.

The Justice said that although the charge of breaking in had been properly withdrawn, there was the question of what he was doing there. According to his own story he went in to, and did, assault Fitzgerald. He (the Justice) took a very serious view of people breaking into buildings or houses, even though unoccupied. He would sentence him to 2 months hard labour on each charge, to run concurrently. The case was a clear proof of the truth of the old saying that "idleness is the father of much evil."

At a Children's Court, a girl aged 13, was charged with the larceny of a gold watch, value 15/-. The property of Mrs. Bridget Meade, Kyle.
Supt. Dennehy said the watch dis-

BEET GROWERS!

A large acreage, both far and near, has already been subscribed for.
Realise what your loss may be if you are not included in our list of Beet Growers.
The industrious farmers have already signed.
Follow their example—sign your application form—and you will not be sorry when the choiques are coming from the Mallow Beet Factory in 1934.

What Sugar Beet means to the Farmer:

- 1.—It is a cash crop for which there is a certain and assured market at a fixed price.
- 2.—The grower can obtain cash advances of up to £5 per statute acre during the Summer if his crop is reasonably promising.
- 3.—The grower gets his beet seed and also, if desired, the artificial manures for the crop on credit terms.
- 4.—Sugar beet yields two by-products—tops and sugar pulp—both of which are excellent for the feeding of farm stock.
- 5.—The growing of beet in this country, as in others, has resulted in increased yields from the crops following beet, namely, corn and first year hay, and also in the improvement of the temporary pastures.
- 6.—Careful attention to good manuring and thorough cultivation results in higher yields as regards both tonnage and sugar content and so in higher cash returns.
- 7.—A crop of 10 tons per statute acre with a sugar content of 17½ per cent. (a yield and sugar content below the average of all crops grown in some seasons for the Carlow factory) represent a gross cash return, at the price now offered, of £17 10s. 0d. In addition the grower has 8 tons of tops and crowns and, free of charge at the factory, 15 cwt. of sugar pulp.

INSTRUCTIONS.

"I heard you got a letter from your brother Denny."
"Indeed I did."
"Was there anything important in the letter?"
"Well, I didn't open it, for on the outside of the envelope was printed: 'Please return in five days,' so I sent it back to him."

appeared between August 26th and Sept. 9th. The accused gave it to a girl friend, aged 13, who gave her in exchange, a brass ring, bought for one penny. That girl gave the watch to her brother who handed it over to a friend with whom he was exchanging bicycles. He gave it to his mother who brought it to a jeweller, from whom the Guards got it.

Mrs. Meade, stated the watch was in a small box over the fireplace. It was 18 carat and cost originally £8.
The various parties concerned in the matter having given evidence corroborating the Superintendent's statement, the accused saying she thought it was a toy watch.

The Supt. said the child could be sent to a reformatory.
The Justice—It seems a fit case for an Industrial School.

The Supt.—I am afraid that course will have to be adopted sooner or later—there are so many of these petty larceny cases. The others who took the watch were also guilty of an offence.

The Justice said that although first offenders might not be punished by the Court, there was still a black mark against them—that of having committed larceny.

She was let out under the P.O.A., being bound over for 3 years.
The Justice said there was too much of that juvenile crime cropping up and some offender would be sent to a reformatory.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

UNITEL-IRELAND PARTY.

At a largely attended meeting held in the Courthouse on Monday night week, which was fully representative of the Farmers Party, Cumann na nGaedheal and the National Guard.

Mr. James Fives, presided, and Mr. P. Mullane, acted as secretary to the meeting.

After an interesting discussion, and a friendly exchange of views, it was unanimously decided to form a Branch of the United Ireland Party for Cappoquin town and parish, and over 50 members joined the new organisation on the spot, and the following officers were elected:—Mr. James Fives, President; Mr. J. O'Connor, Treasurer; and Mr. James McGrath, Hon. Sec.

The following were elected on the committee:—Messrs. Patk. Morrissey, John Noonan, E. Casey, John Griffin, J. P. O'Donnell, Patk. Griffin, James Ahearne and Hugh Walsh.

In the course of the discussion, several of those present referred to the great losses being sustained by the agricultural and other industries in the country as a result of the suicidal economic war now going on and emphasised the fact that the only hope of bringing this disastrous state of affairs to an end was by supporting the United Ireland Party which aimed at reopening the English markets and restoring the fairs and markets of the Free State to their former prosperity, without which the farmers and traders of the country would be reduced to a state of poverty.

THE C.Y.M.S.

In the course of an interesting address to the members of the Men's Confraternity of the Sacred Heart on Sunday night, Very Rev. Canon Whelan, appealed to the young men of the town and parish to support the local Catholic Young Men's Society which provided for them the means of pure and healthy recreation which would keep many of them from the paths of temptation and sin. He also referred to the fine Rowing Club in the town, which should also be supported by the young men, and said there was no rivalry whatever between both bodies, but, on the contrary, the C.Y.M.S. was under a deep obligation to those at the head of the Rowing Club for their great kindness and co-operation on many occasions in the past.

He added that the Hall of the C.Y.M.S. was always at the free disposal of the townspeople whenever they wanted to hold meetings for sports or races there, but they could not allow it to be used for political meetings, as no politics were allowed to be discussed in the Hall.

By the way, the dance held in aid of the C.Y.M.S. in the Boathouse Hall on Sunday week was very well patronised not only by the townspeople, but also by large numbers from Lismore, Tallow, Fermoy, Clasmore, Aghlish, Villierstown, Cappagh and other districts, and the committee wish to thank the people of Villierstown for so kindly postponing the dance to be held there the same night, so as not to clash with the C.Y.M.S. fixture. Mr. J. P. O'Keefe, Hon. Sec., C.Y.M.S., paid an eloquent tribute to their kindness and conveyed to them the deep gratitude of the C.Y.M.S. in thanking all present for their support in the course of the dance on Sunday night week. The music was supplied by Professor Harry McCarthy's Orchestra, from the Theatre Royal, Waterford, while the catering arrangements were excellently carried out by Cappoquin's popular and efficient caterer, Mr. G. Watson, which added greatly to the comfort and enjoyment of the eighty couples present on the occasion.

ROWING CLUB PRACTICE DANCES.

The usual winter Practice Dances, which have proved such a popular and enjoyable feature in the social life of Cappoquin for several years past, will commence in the Boathouse under the auspices of the Rowing Club, on next Sunday night, 22nd inst., and will be continued every Sunday night during the winter months. During the long and dreary nights of winter it should prove a great boon to the young ladies and gentlemen of the town and district to have a fine comfortable hall open to them to enjoy three delightful hours of dancing from 8 to 11 o'clock, instead of aimlessly wandering along the dark and muddy roads.

Splendid orchestral music will be provided each night, and as the admission is only the modest sum of 4d. each, we hope to see a record attendance at the opening dance on Sunday night.

THE TECHNICAL SCHOOL.

Mr. Bowen, Co. Surveyor, has lost no time in starting work on the above job. On Monday week the work of clearing out the site in Barrack street was begun, when only two labourers were employed, but this number has been gradually increased almost every day since then, with the result that at the beginning of this week no less than 14 labourers and 3 carters were employed, which shows what a god-send the building of this school will mean for many honest workers who would otherwise be unemployed during the winter months.

Mr. M. F. Walsh, Co. C., who has worked so hard and unselfishly for the past 3 years to get this school built for the benefit of the boys and girls of Cappoquin, requested Mr. Bowen to employ as much local labour as possible and he has very kindly acceded to this request, the only outsiders being experienced members of the Co. Council staff, whose services were indispensable in an important building job like this. Mr. Walter Walsh, Kill, who had charge of the re-building of Lismore Courthouse, is in charge of the entire work here, and it is a great tribute to his efficiency that the entire site was completely cleared out and levelled early this week, and building operations had actually started on Tuesday afternoon when the writer visited the scene.

NEW GROTTO AT THE MERCY CONVENT.

A splendid and artistic Grotto has just been erected on the picturesque grounds of the Convent of Mercy at Shanbally. The work of building it was entrusted to Mr. Bowen, and both in design and finish it is a distinct credit to him.

Erected at the Western side of the beautiful Convent, and standing 48 feet high x 40 feet wide, it is a most attractive structure which greatly enhances the already ornate appearance of the Convent building and its verdant and well-kept grounds. In an ornamental alcove in the centre of the Grotto is a large statue of the Blessed Virgin surmounted by a scroll bearing the words, "I am the Immaculate Conception."

At the foot of the statue a limestone slab contains the following inscription: "This Grotto has been presented by Miss Mary Kieley, New York, to the memory of her parents, brothers and sisters, 1933."

The generous donor, Miss Mary Kieley, is daughter of the late Mr. Jas. and Mrs. Kieley, who held an extensive farm at Blenahouree, opposite "The Pike," near Cappoquin, many years ago, and during her residence here in those far-off days this lady was noted for her great religious fervour and other virtues, and was one of the founders of the children of Mary Sodality in Cappoquin. An old pupil of the Convent School, she has never forgotten her association with the Sisters of Mercy here, and her generous donation for the erection of this Grotto is now gratefully appreciated by the Nuns of the present community.

XMAS TURKEYS.

Owing to the uncertain condition of the Irish Poultry Trade at present due to the increased tariff of 3d. per lb. imposed by the British Government, recently on smaller dead poultry exported from the Irish Free State to England, breeders of turkeys will be well advised to dispose of their finished birds at the earliest moment in case further tariffs may be imposed on these exports before the later stages of the Turkey Season for Christmas.

All turkeys will be purchased daily at highest market prices by J. O'Connor and Sons, Egg and Poultry Exporters, Cappoquin.

PRICE OF PIGS.

The price of fat pigs at the Cappoquin Bacon Factory this week remained unchanged at 44/- per cwt. dead weight. Supplies, however, still continue most satisfactory.

INTERESTING WEDDING IN NEW YORK.

A New York paper to hand contains the following, which should be of special interest to the people of Cappoquin and Modeligo, where the parents of the bride in question hailed from.

The wedding of Miss Eileen Tobin, of 10, Sterling street, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Tobin, of New York City, and the late Mr. Edward Tobin, to Mr. Bernard Bourke, of 413, Hasbrouck Avenue, son of Mrs. Mary Bourke and the late Mr. Hugh Bourke, was solemnised at St. Mary's Church, on Sunday, September 17th. The Rev. James P. Moore, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Tobin, of New York City, the best man being Mr. John Malville of Kingston.

The bride wore the traditional ivory satin, and her tulle veil fell from a Victorian cap of lace, trimmed with Gardenias, her bouquet consisting of white roses.

The reception which followed at the Hotel Kirkland was attended by numerous friends and relatives from Kingston, New York City and New Jersey.

After the wedding dinner, all adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Herriek, 10, Sterling street, where a buffet supper was served. The bride received numerous and costly gifts as wedding presents. The happy couple left later for their honeymoon to tour the New England States, and on their return will make their residence at 29, Progress street, where a newly-furnished home awaits them.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Tobin, the mother of the bride, is a native of Cappoquin, being daughter of the late Mr. Nicholas and Mrs. Doyle, Allen street, and as Miss "Lizzie" Doyle was well and popularly known here as a charming brunette who was held in very high esteem by all. She is sister of Mrs. B. Regan, wife of Mr. John Regan, Allen street, and a few years after going to New York she married the late Mr. Edward Tobin, a member of a respectable family in the Modeligo district. The report of her daughter's wedding now revives happy memories amongst many of her old-time friends and admirers in Cappoquin, all of whom join in wishing the happy pair many years of conjugal bliss and prosperity in their new home in Progress street, New York.

DEATH. KEYES—October 15th., 1933, at his residence, Market Street, Bantry, Mr. M. J. Keyes. Deeply regretted.—R.I.P.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Mr. Edmund Power, Glen, and Cullinan family, Kilmacthomas, wish to thank all the kind friends for telegrams and letters of sympathy in their recent great sorrow; also the various Fianna Fail Cumannns for resolutions passed to them.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

DUNGARVAN FAIR. The October Fair on Wednesday was well supplied with cattle in all departments and a good number were in forward condition. Prices were lower than hitherto recorded. 14-year-olds made £3 10s. to £5; 24-year-olds £6 to £8 10s., and 3-year-olds and upwards £8 to £10. Springers £10 to £15. Fat cows 20/- to 25/- cwt. Sheep in good condition sold at 25/- to 35/- and lambs 20/- to 25/-. Small supply of store pigs and bonhams. Good stores made 25/- to 35/- and others less as per quality.

RETREAT IN DUNGARVAN. On Sunday night the week's retreat conducted by Father Hunt, and Fr. Brown, of the Redemptorist Order, opened for the men of Dungarvan parish. The previous week the retreat was for the women. The attendance at the morning and evening devotions during the week has been a record and the learned discourses of the eloquent preachers were followed with the closest attention. Our worthy Pastor, and his zealous Curates, have reason to be proud of the religious state of the Parish. The retreat will close on Sunday evening.

APPOINTED C.E.O. Mr. R. Mulcahy, Fenor, who for some time has been a teacher under the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee, has been selected to fill the onerous position of Chief Executive Officer of the Co. Longford Vocational Committee. All present associated themselves with the vote. LISMORE STUDENT ORDAINED. At St. Patrick's, Esker, Athenry, Rev. T. C. O'Connor, C.S.S.R., was raised to the Priesthood by Most Rev. Dr. Dignan, Bishop of Clonfert. Fr. O'Connor, is son of the late James and Mrs. H. O'Connor, Victuallers, Lismore and brother of Mrs. K. O'Connor and Mrs. Carmody, Borris-in-Ossory, Leix.

COMMUNITY SINGING. When the Vocational Education Committee will have a teacher of music and singing appointed there is no reason why we should not have community singing as a regular feature. We have an excellent Brass and Reed Band and a bandmaster (Mr. McHugh) capable of having all our popular songs set to music. Then with a professor of singing to take charge of the populace most enjoyable public singing could be had. There is nothing like music to soothe the troubled brain and in the age of worry in which we live at the moment, music and song would be a great antidote. Plato insisted on all young men who wished to enter public life in Athens having a perfect training in music, singing and the fine arts and the old Greek Philosopher was right. If Vocational Education is to be brought to the greatest success, it must have a cultural as well as a commercial side. The sooner our Vocational Committee will make this new appointment the greater will be its value. We are now entered upon the winter when full advantage can be taken of the proposed musical course.

Keen disappointment was felt by the big crowd of Gaelic followers who travelled to Dungarvan on Sunday last to witness the tie between Dungarvan and Kilmossanty for the final of the Western division Senior Football, owing to the match not being finished. Play was very fast and even during the first half, with Kilmossanty doing more attacking than their opponents, but their forward line was erratic and some good opportunities were badly missed at the start. At the half time, the score stood Important Notice.

We wish to call the attention of our customers and the general public to the fact that we have erected a Walworth Patent Kiln at considerable expense to treat the native Grain which it is incumbent on us to mix with Maize. Under the new Cereals Bill the quantity of this Admixture has been raised by a recent order of the Department of Agriculture from 10 per cent. to 15 per cent.

Owing to this increased percentage to secure good sound Meal, the Kiln-drying of the home-grown Grain is in our opinion absolutely necessary. We therefore, guarantee that the quota of native Grain used by this Firm in the Admixture will be Kiln-dried. This combined with the stone grinding at our Water-power Mill at Kiladangan, should secure a first-class article.

We shall supply Maize Meal with the stipulated Admixture of either OATS or BARLEY. In the case of BARLEY being used a slight increase in price will be required. As the percentage of admixture of Home-Grown Grain fixed on July 24th at 25 per cent. has been further increased to 33.43 per cent. to come into force on October 9th, the KILN DRYING of native grain is still more necessary. Combined with KILN DRYING all native grain we have been dehulling the Oats since the increase of July 24th last.

Finally, we find the percentage of moisture in the new crop much in excess of that in last season's Crop. K Williams & Co. Ltd

KILMAGTHOMAS NEWS.

RETURNED.

Winter's biting blast has arrived at last, and Monday bore all the appearance of a December day. The night, too, was desolate, cold, heavy showers sweeping the whole wide countryside, while inky darkness made it well nigh impossible to move about out-of-doors beyond range of the town lights. Kilmagthomas has now assumed its winter habits and deserted streets will be the rule till Summer comes back again.

ONCE AGAIN.

The coursing season is with us, and followers of the "long tails" are busy preparing for the winter campaign, which looks like being a strenuous one if we are to take the fixture list as an index. Dungarvan, as usual, has the honour of setting the ball rolling in the Decies—the meeting takes place on the 9th prox. It augurs well to find the Old Borough having such an ambitious programme as that mapped out for this year's meeting, and there is not reason why this year's coursing should not be as good as former years have been. Certainly, our sterling sporting friend, Mr. J. J. Crotty, and his capital colleagues of the Dungarvan Club are striving their utmost to insure the success of their forthcoming fixture. Coursing in Ireland has been described as "the poor man's sport," and undoubtedly among the ordinary people of the countryside it has become extremely popular. Here in the home-county, where many a hearth has its greyhound, the sport has had a wonderful vogue, and Portlairge greyhounds have been among the fleetest on either field or track.

A WARNING WORD.

Though it is rather premature yet to discuss the prospects of the Christmas poultry market, we think it would be well to warn turkey sellers to be careful to ascertain the financial status of people in England, who were in the habit of promising highest prices for turkeys. Many Irish sellers of turkeys have been gulled by specious advertisements in the newspapers from some of those British exploiters, who offer "highest prices," get the goods, and cannot be located when it comes to the matter of payment. Those who have been victimised already are not likely to be had again, but it is quite possible that other guileless people may fall into the trap this year also. If they are made victims they will have themselves to blame, for "forewarned is forearmed." By the way, the many turkey feeders from the Comeraghs to the seaboard will be glad to know that our well-known and deservedly-popular Dungarvan friend, Mr. P. O'Mahony one of the leading Southern Ireland butter buyers, will be buying turkeys at the Kilmagthomas Xmas Poultry Markets this year. Mr. O'Mahony will be positioned at his usual stand here—at Mr. Percy Kirwan's premises in the Main street—and he will pay the top ruling to all vendors dealing with him.

THE "SPUDS."

The potato crop, which in the old days, used to be the staple food of our people, has been the most prolific and the soundest experienced for many years. The tubers which ripened much earlier than usual, are dug out and pitted in most districts to-day. There will, therefore, be a most plentiful supply of excellent table potatoes available in the country this season, so that the poorer people in the towns are assured of supplies at cheap rates throughout the winter and spring. The surplus supplies should compensate the growers for the reduced prices which are sure to be the order, while, in addition, pig producers will be able to supplement other feeding stuffs by the use of the small or waste potatoes. While on this subject of pig-feeding stuffs, we would like to reiterate what experts have so often urged, that home-grown grain ought to enter more largely into pig dietary all over An Saorstát. Demonstration tests held a few years ago proved conclusively that pigs fed on ground barley and oats, with other essential adjuncts, weighed heavier and produced better quality bacon than pigs fed on "yellow meal." Many of those engaged in fattening pigs, still hold to the opinion that maize meal is essential for the quick fattening and finishing of pigs. That may be so, but the relative cost of both feeding stuffs must be considered when the question of economic prices is taken into account. If barley and oats entered more generally into the rationing of pigs, farmers would be saved the necessity for paying high prices for the imported maize meal and would be induced to place a larger area of their land under barley and oats. The admixture of home-grown grain with Argentine grain should be productive of good results. That process is only in its experimental stages yet, and it would not be safe to express an opinion on it at the initial stages. As is already well known, grain prices this year are much under the standard of previous years' prices. That is yet another reason why pig feeders ought utilise more home-grown barley and oats for pig feeding.

LATE MRS. EDMOND POWER, GLEN.

Kilmagthomas, Ballylaneen, Faha, Newtown, Stradbally, Leamybrien, and Kilrossanty Fianna Fáil Clubs, respectively, voted sympathy to Mr. Ed. Power, family, and relatives, in their recent sad bereavement.

UNITED IRELAND PARTY.

A meeting held in the Hall, Kilmagthomas, for the purpose of forming a branch of the U.I.P. in the town, was well attended by representatives of the

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Mrs. S. Hurley, P.C.; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. Dennehy, E. Clancy, T. Beausang, D. J. Linehan, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; P. J. McMahon, P.C.; A. J. Fowkes, J. Kennedy.

Wages, Etc.

A cheque for £67 14s. 1d., wages account for the week, was unanimously passed on the proposition of Mr. O'Gorman, seconded by Mr. Dennehy.

Strand Church Committee Draw.

Mr. T. J. Grey, Hon. Sec., Strand Church Committee, wrote that a draw organised by the Council for five shareholders who were to be joint shareholders of the 50 Hospital Sweep Tickets, was to be held on the 17th, inst., under the patronage of the Very Rev. Canon Dinneen, D.D. The Council had already given permission to the Church Committee to use the hall on the occasion and they cordially invited the Chairman, members and officials to attend.

Mr. Dennehy thanked the Council on behalf of the Committee.

Maternity and Child Welfare Scheme.

A letter was read from Dr. Condy, Co. M.O.H., dealing in detail with the new Maternity and Child Welfare Scheme. He suggested that there should be a distinct line drawn, as regards the Doctor to be employed, between the voluntary arrangement and Dispensary services.

The Clerk read a letter received from the L.G.D. last March, suggesting that their M.O.H., should be appointed to act. The fee allowed was one guinea for each attendance.

Mr. McMahon—Are we to pay for the doctor? The Clerk said they were giving £120 yearly towards the scheme and the doctor's fee would come out of that.

Capt. Dunne proposed, that they appoint their M.O.H., Dr. T. Kennedy, as doctor to the scheme.

Mr. Lynch seconded. He said they were the masters of the situation, not Dr. Condy. Why should they be dictated to?

The Clerk said the clinic wouldn't open till they appointed a doctor. He took it they were formally appointing Dr. Kennedy.

Mrs. Hurley suggested that a lady doctor would be more fitting in the circumstances, and as they had one in the town, they ought appoint her.

Mr. Fowkes thought they ought consult the committee who were working the scheme, and be influenced by their opinion, which deserved some consideration.

The Clerk—As Capt. Dunne had said they were paying the piper, and therefore, entitled to call the tune. The L.G. had said they should appoint the M.O.H.

Mrs. Hurley proposed, and Mr. Dennehy seconded, the appointment of Dr. Stella Kennedy.

Mr. McMahon—Sure they are one. Mr. O'Gorman—The matter could be arranged between them.

Mrs. Hurley—it would be nicer to offer her the position.

Mr. Beausang—That would be a tough question to vote upon—between a doctor and wife (laughter).

The proposition was passed unanimously.

Houses At Sea View Site.

The Clerk said that Mrs. Hurley and the Chairman were the only members who attended the Committee meeting at the Sea View Site in connection with the question of having a roadway in front common to all the houses, or steps to each house, as originally intended. The Town Surveyor had estimated the cost of the roadway for 108 houses as against steps would be £98 and £83, including 5 houses extra. The figures would be £113 5s. 0d., and £115. There would be 12 to 16 steps to each house.

After some discussion, Mr. Beausang proposed, and Mr. McMahon seconded, that they adhere to the steps.

Mr. Fowkes made a strong appeal in favour of the roadway, pointing out that steps would be most dangerous for children, and if any accident happened the Council might be held liable and be compelled to do away with the steps. Would any member with a family of young children like to have his house approached by 16 steps?

The Chairman—No, nor four.

Mr. Lynch said there were only 3 steps to his house, and they were always kept going watching the children.

Mr. McMahon said in view of Mr. Fowkes' statement he withdrew from the proposition, and proposed that they adopt the roadway project.

This was seconded by Mr. Harrington, and passed unanimously.

Beet Sugar Factory.

Mr. Lynch said he had an important matter to bring before them and he did so with no idea of making political capital out of it. It was that they should take immediate action with the National Farmers' and Ratepayers' League, Cumann na nGaedheal, National Guard and Labour. A branch was formed with the following officers: President, Mr. David Coghlan, M.C.C.; Vice-President, Mr. Edward Hill; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas G. Flahavan; Secretary, Mr. Percy Kirwan. A resolution was passed congratulating the leaders of the U.I.P. for their wisdom and patriotism in joining forces and putting country before party interests. The President appealed to each one present to be a loyal member of the branch, and to leave nothing undone in inducing friends and neighbours to join.

view to endeavouring to get a beet factory for the locality. The farmers of the surrounding countryside were complaining that the Council was doing nothing. They had some of the finest land possible in the neighbourhood for growing beet. He, therefore, proposed that they make a move in the matter and that they call for the active support of all interested in the welfare of the community.

Mr. Beausang said he had much pleasure in seconding the proposition. It was a pity they hadn't moved before.

Mr. Dennehy—We all second and support that.

Mallow Beet Sugar Factory.

A letter was read from Mr. P. F. Moloney, Instructor in Agriculture, Cork, stating that he had named the Mallow House, as a meeting place on Fair Day, in connection with the campaign to organise prospective beet growers. He trusted his action would not meet with the opposition of the Council.

Mrs. Hurley asked what about the shirt factory which had been suggested some time ago.

The Chairman said there wasn't the slightest use in talking about a shirt factory.

On the proposition of Mr. Beausang, it was unanimously decided to grant the use of the Town Hall free of charge.

Rents Of Houses.

A letter was read from the L.G.D., stating that the Council should now consider the question of the rents to be charged for the new houses.

The Clerk said he would have all the necessary figures, etc., before them at next meeting.

Rate Defaulters. Mrs. Hurley—Am I entitled to ask who are the ratepayers in arrears?

The Clerk said any member of the Council was entitled to examine the arrears sheet at any time.

Town Wall.

The Town Surveyor submitted an estimate for repairing the breach in the Town Wall by the erection of a concrete portion, at £24.

Mr. Clancy said it was a shame to see their old historic wall in its present neglected condition.

Mr. Fowkes said he was in favour of the Surveyor's suggestion. It would cost a mint of money to restore the wall to anything like its original appearance.

Capt. Dunne proposed, and Mr. Lynch seconded, that they carry out the work in accordance with the Surveyor's estimate.

Mr. McMahon asked wasn't there a resolution on the books to the effect that they do no work that wasn't budgetted for.

The Clerk said there was.

Replying to Mr. O'Gorman, the Clerk said they had already exceeded the amount budgetted for by £206.

Mr. O'Gorman said in view of the present state of business, he was opposed to any further unnecessary expenditure.

Mr. Fowkes said that breach in the wall was there several years and the place inside was the scene of constant trespass. If the proprietor took proceedings they would be compelled to make up the breach.

Capt. Dunne said in view of the Clerk's statement, he withdrew his proposition.

Mr. O'Gorman said they should protect the tenant inside from trespass, but they should try and find a cheaper method.

After a protracted discussion, the matter was adjourned, the Chairman promising to visit and examine the place.

FIANNA FAIL.

ADDRESS BY MR P. J. LITTLE, T.D.

At a meeting of the East Waterford Fianna Fail Comhairle, in Tramore, on Sunday, Mr. P. J. Little, T.D., presided. Referring to the position of the farmers, the economic conditions, and prospects generally, he declared that the no-rates campaign was one of the worst-conceived campaigns that was ever carried out in this country. As a matter of fact, however, the full weight of public opinion was now against it. If it had been successful it would have paralysed all the social services—hospitals and mental hospitals, county homes, home assistance, free milk, free fuel, and all those other amenities which had entered so much into the lives of the people, and which had been so much increased by the Fianna Fail Government.

The success of that campaign, Mr. Little continued, would also have meant the abdication by the people of their right to local government, because if they refused to pay their rates they could not carry on local government or act as representatives on local bodies. The apparent object of this campaign had been to make government impossible in the country, and that would, if it had succeeded, have meant anarchy. As a matter of fact, the campaign was the nearest thing they had yet had in the country to Bolshevism. It would also have meant the breaking down of the morale of the people, because, if it had succeeded, it would have been imitated by other bodies in the country. It was, therefore, necessary for the Government to take a very firm attitude towards it. The general feeling all over the country at present was that the Government had been even too tolerant towards the people who had organised that campaign. At the same time the Government were anxious to get the co-operation of all classes and not to create a further atmosphere of civil war.

The Government was doing a great deal for the farmers by their wheat and tillage schemes, the encouragement of the growing of tobacco and beet, and the farmers could now turn their minds to taking advantage of these schemes. Next year they would get a bounty upon their wheat, and they should organise an association in Waterford so as to secure a quota under the beet factories in Carlow, Mallow and Thurles. It was well to remind the farmers that the Government had increased powers under the new Land Act, and that if people did not use their land properly their farms could be sold under the Land Commission, especially if their land was over and above the value of £2,000. At the same time, no farmer who threw his whole energies into the Government schemes, and showed he was working for the country, need have any fear of interference from any Government. The Government was perfectly conscious of the fact that if the independence movement was smashed of present, and if they had to surrender in the economic war to Mr. Thomas, it would put back in the country for fifty years.

The report of an impending General Election, Mr. Little described as the most foolish in the world. The Government, he said, was firmly fixed in office, and had the support of the vast majority of the people now even more than before, because many of them had been roused by the opposition given to the Government, which was not merely opposition to a particular party, but was an attack on the fabric of the State itself.

From one point of view, he said, there had been a great improvement, because Irish industries had been started to supplant the imported manufactured goods to the extent of £5,000,000. Also, the retention of the land annuities and the R.I.C. pensions money meant that £5,000,000 was circulating in Ireland which had formerly poured out of the country. This change had done something to counterbalance the other effects of the economic war, and close observers of the conditions of things in various centres noticed that there was a considerable flow of money. For instance, Tramore never had a better season than this year, after a number of very poor seasons, during the last few years.

Mr. Little concluded by repeating a story he had heard from the President regarding the attitude of two Nationalists to the Fianna Fail Government. One of them, an old Fenian, had been out of touch with Irish affairs for many years. On returning to his native country the only question he asked was: "What party is being attacked by the English?" He supplied the answer himself by stating: "Because that is the party I will join."

"KNOCKED HIMSELF DOWN TO HIGHEST BIDDER."

"You put yourself up for auction and you knocked yourself down to the highest bidder," said Judge Gleeson, E.C., in the Circuit Court, Longford, to Peter McGuire, a farmer, of Killoe. McGuire was sued by his father-in-law, John Lennox, for £300 for the maintenance of McGuire's wife and four children.

McGuire said that seventeen years ago he was engaged to a girl from the country. As he was going home from buying the wedding ring he met Lennox and his daughter. Lennox said he could give McGuire as good a fortune with his daughter as any man could give.

On the day McGuire was to have married the country girl he married Lennox's daughter. Mrs. McGuire said she could not live with her husband because of his meanness. He had told her she could die on the roads, because she was unable to work on the farm.

Judge Gleeson made a decree for £208, and McGuire that if he did not support his family he would go to prison.

No. 146.—

MAKING THE PARTING EASY.

EUTHANASIA OF DOGS.

By "PHILOKONON."

HOWEVER attached we may be to our dogs or other animals, the time comes, soon or late when a parting is inevitable. A severe attack of distemper or some other disease may leave a dog in such a state that it would be a misery for him to live, and the lives of elderly animals are often prolonged from motives of mistaken kindness. Human people are concerned about the most suitable methods for ensuring a painless end. A little time ago the public mind was much exercised over a case that appeared in the papers in which exhaust fumes from a motor car were used.

Lieut.-Colonel Wakefield Rainey, M.R.C.V.S. discusses the subject fully in a little pamphlet entitled "Euthanasia of Dogs and Cats," in which he writes of the different means usually employed. There is not much doubt that he prefers shooting, which, when properly carried out is satisfactory, because unconsciousness is produced instantaneously and unexpectedly. The transition from life to death is free from any sort of form or anguish or terror. In towns he suggests that the ideal weapon for this purpose is a .22 calibre humane-killer pistol or short rifle fitted with a silencer and operated by a trigger. To remove any fear of returning consciousness he proposes injecting into the thorax immediately afterwards five cubic centimetres of Scheele's prussic acid.

In a recent issue of the "Veterinary Journal" he laid further emphasis upon this form of destruction, remarking that it was impressed upon him at an early age that an immediate death by shooting was the only proper way of despatching to the happy hunting grounds any horse or dog. His conclusion is that "the practical results of the humane slaughter principles have been disastrous."

In these matters sentimentalism frequently outweighs practical considerations. It sounds so much pleasanter to think of our old friends being put to sleep in a lethal chamber rather than undergoing a more violent death. The sense of smell, so acute in dogs, will cause them uneasiness in the lethal chamber, and make them pass through what Colonel Rainey describes as "a mournful and distressing experience." When such means have to be used he believes that every care should be taken not to arouse the apprehensions of the animal, and he insists that coal gas exposed to coal gas, gradually introduced into lethal chambers, do not show the frenzy observed with certain concentrations of exhaust gas. He would prohibit the use by anyone of chloroform or ether in lethal chambers or boxes, except where mechanical facilities exist for its foolproof use in a highly concentrated form, as at the Battersea Dogs' Home.

Perhaps the commonest agent is prussic acid, and although it does not cause painless death, Colonel Rainey explains that it is extremely rapid, and perhaps the most foolproof and invariable in its action, if fresh Scheele's prussic acid is employed.

This chat is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND, 23, Old Abbey Street (off Marlborough Street), Dublin, C.S. The Club will be pleased to answer any enquiries submitted by Tail-Wagger Owners in connection with canine hygiene and welfare.

FARM WORKERS ATTACK BATHERS.

Farm women riding to market on a vegetable truck in Orilla, Ontario, opened fire with tomatoes on a group of semi-nude girls bathing in a river. Many direct hits were scored.

The bathers, scoring orders to put on more clothes, hurled the tomatoes back at the women and a battle royal followed, with the police finally intervening.

Charges of assault and counter charges of indecent exposure were filed later by the participants in the battle.

SHOPLIFTER AND A RING PARTED BY A FILE.

This all occurred within an hour at Bristol. A woman put a ring on her finger in a shop. She had to be taken to Bristol Infirmary to have it filed off. She was fined 10s. at the police court for stealing it. And the ring was valued at 1s.

G. A. A.

Our G.A.A. correspondent writes:— As we predicted here last week, the Kilrossanty—Dungarvan big ball bout proved a real "hell-for-leather" fray. The game, which came to an abrupt ending after forty minutes, produced a sparkling exhibition of high-class football. Many of Old Borough's and Comeragh Valley's old time players who were present stated it was the greatest game of football ever witnessed while it held. There is no doubt it was the best game seen in the County this year. The teams were very evenly matched, and it was "anyone's game" when the sudden stoppage transpired. Dungarvan's attacking strategy wasn't a whit superior to Kilrossanty's. Mattie Ryan and his men showed a higher standard of football than we have seen from any of the Kilrossanty senior sides of the past decade.

Here are the figures of the first half: Kilrossanty—4 goal (beautifully shot from a difficult right angle by "Boy" Lonergan), 6 overs, 1 fifty, 7 frees; Dungarvan—1 point (grandly gained by D. Goode), 3 overs, 2 fifties, 6 frees. Walsh (Kilrossanty) and Greaney (Dungarvan) were injured in this period, but both were able to resume after being attended to. The while play held sway in the second moiety, each set was awarded 2 frees; the homesters sent wide thrice, and the visitors once. Some short span before the premature termination of the contest, Mattie Ryan (Kilrossanty's full back) was seen to effect a brilliant clearance from the parallelgram from which stage play was proceeding, and the sphere was soon within easy range of the Dungarvan posts when one of the home forwards left his place on the pitch and rushed up to the goal umpire at the Kilrossanty citadel, and as a result of whatever transpired between them, the green flag was hoisted in favour of Dungarvan. The forward referred to is a fine player, and is far too good to spoil himself by allowing his temper to get the better of him. That the referee (Mr. Paddy Moloney, of Aghish), overlooked this and a second glaring travesty on the part of the same player (when he again left his place to bounce on Kilrossanty's mid-field man, J. Moroney) baffled and bewildered the bulk of the fair play loving sportsmen in attendance. When Moroney shook off his opponent, who had jumped on his back from behind, he was ordered off the pitch. On ascertaining from the referee that the Dungarvan player concerned would not be put off with Moroney and that Dungarvan would be awarded the match if Moroney refused to comply with the arbiter's order—Captain Mattie Ryan and his men left the arena. Prior to their departure, Dungarvan's versatile player, T. Greaney, was one of a number of prominent Gaels who appealed in vain to the referee to put off the other man concerned with Moroney and so allow the game to proceed. A most deplorable ending to a truly delightful engagement. In justice to the teams, the referee, the umpires and all patrons of the event, we are not alone in the opinion that the match should be re-fied.

The S.F. replay (Eastern Div. Final), between Le La Salle and Fenor, was enacted before a big crowd at Waterford Gaelic Sportsfield on last Sunday afternoon. A hectic set-to wound up in favour of the Collegians by 1-1 to 0-1. Fenor scored a goal, which was disallowed, and we are reliably informed that the losers are lodging an objection on this score. In the South Tipp S.H. Final, decided at Clonmel, Carrick-on-Suir Swans bested Boherlahan by a substantial margin.
